PASCAGOULA, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1918

NUMBER 46.

FRANCO-AMERICANS BEGIN GREAT COUNTER ATTACK.

Twenty-Towns, 4,000 Men and Large Quantities of Guns Captured by Americans.

Paris, July 18.—More than 20 villages have been recaptured by the French and American troops in the offensive begun this morning, according to the war office announcement tonight, which reports also the occupation of the plateau dominating Soissons on the southwest.

At noon on Monday when the Germans were bringing forward reserve divisions in the neighborhood of the Moronviller range of hills, the French gunners got their exact range by telling effect. When the smoke cleared great heaps of dead and wounded men and horses were plainly visible on the slopes of the hills.

Some of the assaulting divisions were so badly battered that they had to be withdrawn while the fight was still in progress. Although the Germans gathered about fifty of their best divisions on the battle front not all have been engaged and they still possess sufficient strength to make another effort here or elsewhere.

The French are on the western outskirts of Chouy and Neuilly-St. Front and from there to Belesau wood the average depth of the advance is about three miles.

East of Rheims the allies have captured Brunay.

The French have lost some ground, but are still within effective range of the German bridges across the river, though it is possible they may have lost direct observation. Further to the east the allies have regained ground in a good many sectors, especially in the sector west of Massiges.

YANKS TAKE 4,000 MEN.

Prisoners, Gun and Materials Taken in Drive.

London, July 18.—French troops have gained the ravine at the river Crise running into Soissons on a five-mile front down to the east of Bazancay, which means a maximum advance at this point of five miles, according to news received in London tonight.

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon French troops had captured the heights overlooking Fontenoy on the extreme left and had progressed to Mont De Paris, within a mile of the city of Soissons.

An American division co-operating with the French troops in their counter attack have captured the town of Virry, about six miles south of Soissons, and have advanced three miles beyond the town, the advance add.

South of Virry on the heights north of the river Ourcq valley, the Germans hastily counter attacked and the situation at that point still is obscure.

CITY BEAUTIFUL.

(By Martin Turnbull.)

Modern homes are an ornament to a town. Now that everything is occupied but ice cream freezers, build a bungalow.

Have you observed the smile on the face of the real estate man as he makes a new trade?

Every man, woman and child of this community is worth his or her weight in gold. Anyhow that's the way to view it.

Persons desiring to locate in Pascagoula are respectfully advised to "blow" in a house.

Preferential war stocks—Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps. Better for the public than Bethlehem, Mexican Petroleum and Baldwin. Keep on buying.

Employees of the local companies pledge their loyalty and best work to the flag. May Old Glory wave over the seas forever.

France won supremacy on the flag poles Sunday. It was a notable falling of the Bastille commemorating independence for a great nation.

Scat! the Kaiser is about to take a tumble.

A marvelous bug bear—the profit scheming person.

Raise and lower the flag according to Hoyle—sunrise and sunset. It is indifference to do otherwise than prescribed by national regulations.

French hearts beat with emotion Sunday last when the "Marseillaise" resounded throughout America. Vive la republique!

By the way, Christopher Columbus shadow strutted through the port like a charge d'affaires or generalissimo Sunday.

"Hold fast all I give you"—air fresh from the sea; labor remunerative and pleasant at the shipyards; independence supreme on land and sea. Who am I? Uncle Sam, defender of liberty.

Let's have a big patriotic meeting to discuss waste incineration.

"If you ain't got no job," why then, do you not tell Uncle Sam's labor agent about your troubles. The policeman can't help, besides nine times out of ten he will charge you with vagrancy.

BIG DAY FOR K. of C.

Pascagoula Council No. 1605 Host of Coast Knights and Initiates Large Class.

On last Sunday Pascagoula Council No. 1605, Knights of Columbus were hosts of a large number of visiting Knights from Mobile, Gulfport, Biloxi, Pass Christian and other coast cities, and from several southern states, who came to attend the initiation of fifty candidates in the Knights of Columbus order. They were accompanied from Pass Christian by Rt. Rev. Bishop J. E. Gunn, who delivered a very beautiful address to the large audience that attended mass at Our Lady of Victories church, where an excellent musical program was rendered during the services. A sumptuous luncheon was served by the Pascagoula Knights to the guests, and following that the initiation ceremonies took place at the K. of C. Hall under the direction of a degree team from Mobile.

On the arrival of the coast train Sunday morning the visitors were met by the K. of C. Council No. 1605, the Scranton Fire Co. brass band, and a number of the Junior Red Cross Auxiliary, when a parade was formed which marched through the principal streets of the city, stopping en route before the custom house, where the flag of France was raised in celebration of Bastille Day, to play the "Marseillaise," then proceeded to Our Lady of Victories church to attend mass.

FROM CAMP JACKSON.

To the Chronicle:

If you will permit me I will give you a short sketch of my army life since being called to the colors April 1st. Was ordered to report to Camp Pike April 2d. En route saw much pretty country and many pretty places. Spent two months and a week at Camp Pike, Ark., when orders came to transfer about four hundred of us to Camp Jackson, S. C. The trip to the latter place embraced about fifty hours ride on special train. We had plenty to eat. Also had a doctor along in case any of us got sick. We laid over in Memphis, Tenn., for 45 minutes and the ladies there treated each of the boys to an ice cream cone. At Athens, Ga., the Red Cross girls were looking for us for two hours before we got there and met the train with plenty of ice tea. Each boy was asked to put out his cup and, believe me, we had a good time. At another small town the girls came to the train with cake and buttermilk and we sure did feast.

At Camp Jackson we have a large number of men, 14 Y. M. C. A. buildings and a library in each, also picture shows. We have had a few sand storms up here, which is something we don't have in old Mississippi. We have several herd of horses and mules, artillery, etc., also aeroplanes and observation balloons. The Red Cross nurses go by our barracks every evening.

I won't take up too much space in your paper this time. We realize we are going across soon and ask the good wishes of our friends. Letters from the home folks will certainly be appreciated when we get on the other side.

Hoping for a safe return.

THE BELAIR.

Have we builded any better than we built the Number One
Can she sail a wee knot faster, can she tote an extra ton?
Are her lines a little finer, is she stronger any way;
Will her fame be any brighter in the part she has to play?

Captain Favre quite plainly told us they were watching us in France; That their lives depended on us, nothing must be left to chance;
That the battle lines were longer than they were two years ago,
And though distant from the trenches, we were grappling with the foe.

Everytime a spike was driven, in some coffin went a nail,
And a stitch in shroud was taken with the bending of each sail,
Twas the Kaiser's shroud and coffin we were striving to complete,
And for him with Satan's angels we bespoke a good front seat.

All the heroes of the conflict are not tenting at the front.
Though a thousand miles from Flanders, you may share the battle's brunt.
Do the part that is assigned you, do it quickly, do it well,
That the Reign of Mars be ended, for remember "War is Hell!"

May each worker how'er humble know his country leans on him,
Though he may not bleed in battle, he can highest honors win.
Let him pause not in his striving, Save the boys who left the plow.
Give us ships, and give us more ships, and for their sakes Give Them Now!

CHECKED DRIVE SHOWS VALUE AMERICAN CO-OPERATION.

French Commissioner Says Failure of Offensive in Its Initial Drive is Characteristic of New Phase of War.

Washington, July 17.—The initial failure of the new German offensive so carefully and formidably prepared, is characteristic of a new phase of the war, said M. Edouard De Billy, deputy French high commissioner to the United States, in discussing today the results of the first two days of fighting east and west of Rheims.

The success of the Franco-American co-operation, Mr. De Billy said already has been demonstrated and he added that the Allies can wait for the future with the same confidence shown by the population of Paris under the long range gun bombardment.

"The result of the first two days' fighting is, on half of the front, decidedly in our favor," said Mr. De Billy. "Over the rest of the front, the enemy succeeded in gaining at most four miles at the price of heavy losses."

"Everybody feels that the first phase of the German offensive is a failure, and this may mean within a few days the failure of the whole offensive."

"For two months Germany has used all possible means in her power to replace her losses in men and to raise the offensive power of her army."

"Reinforcements taken from the German troops of occupation in Russia."

"Use of Kussians to replace German workers."

"Use of Austrian troops for secondary tasks at the rear or on Belgian territory."

"Suppression of all the delays granted to drafted men."

"Drafting of part of the class 1920."

"By these efforts we can appraise the results that Germany is seeking, and the importance of an offensive that cannot be indefinitely repeated; Germany's human supply is not inexhaustible."

"With an adversary few whose strength seems to have reached its utter limit, the French army of 1918, in spite of the strain of former battles, in spite of an extension of the French front of nearly 100 kilometres has never been materially and morally stronger."

"American assistance, growing every day, has given us, if possible, still greater confidence in the final victory. On the fourteenth of July, the American people expressed their brotherly love for France. On the fifteenth the soldiers of the United States fighting with the French have sealed this pact with their blood."

"The first days of the battle have shown the success of the Franco-American co-operation which was started last year by the secretary of war in Washington and in the training camps of America. It has found its noblest expression on the battlefield where an American division lost seven of the ten French officers who fought with it. Each of them gave happily his life to fulfill the mission which they had been trusted by the American government and staff."

"With such troops, inspired by such a spirit of comradeship and sacrifice, we can wait for the future with the confidence shown under the bombardment by the population of Paris."

PRATISE FOR HENRY PIAGGIO.

Pass Christian Passes Resolutions Paying Tribute to Builder.

Gulfport, Miss., July 17.—The citizens of Pass Christian through their mayor and aldermen have passed resolutions paying tribute to Henry Piaggio, president of the International Shipbuilding Company.

Mr. Piaggio was first attracted to Gulfport where he is building a $60,000 residence on the beach; later he purchased an entire office building which formerly had been the quarters of the Bank of Commerce and State Bank. He then located a $250,000 wood and steel shipbuilding plant at Pascagoula which, when in full operation, will be next to the Hog Island project, the largest in the United States.

At Pass Christian he established what is said to be the finest golf and yacht club on the coast and a nearby farm which consists of 1250 acres of land stocked with fine cattle, and cultivation of land there is being done on the intensive plan.

FAINT RAY HOPE YOUNG ROOSEVELT IS STILL LIVING.

New York, July 17.—A ray of hope that Lieutenant Roosevelt may not have fallen to his death in a combat with a squadron of German airplanes was brought to Colonel Roosevelt and his wife tonight in a cable message sent from Paris by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., in which she said the report was "absolutely unconfirmed" there. The former president felt, however, that there only is a slight possibility that his youngest son may still live.

TRAIN WILL BE RUN ON COAST BY L. & N.

Accommodation for Shipworkers Planned by Road.

As soon as the necessary equipment is obtainable, it is understood, the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will put on a train between Biloxi and Pascagoula, Miss., to accommodate the shipyard workers at the latter place who reside in Biloxi. An engineer from the Emergency Fleet Corporation, it is learned, was recently sent to Pascagoula to investigate the housing situation, and on learning that because of lack of accommodations at "The Pass" a large number of workers reside at Biloxi. The engineer, it was stated, so reported and the Emergency Fleet Corporation took up the matter with the railroad administration.

HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION EFFECTS ORGANIZATION.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Pascagoula Home Building Association was held at the courthouse Wednesday night and permanent organization effected. A board of directors, consisting of seven members, was elected as follows: F. H. Lewis, V. P. DeJean, P. H. Rodrigue, E. J. Ford, T. G. Hibbler, V. Ros and C. G. Scott. The directors have elected the following officers: E. J. Ford, president; V. P. DeJean, vice-president; V. Ros, secretary, and P. H. Rodrigue, treasurer. The present directors and officers will serve until the first Monday in October, which the stockholders fixed as the date of the annual election of officers. Committees were appointed to draft by-laws for the government of the association and another committee appointed to sell the remaining portion of the $30,000 authorized capital stock. The secretary was directed to collect on specified dates the unpaid balances on stock already subscribed, so that all stock will be fully paid by the date of the annual meeting of stockholders in October.

It is expected that sufficient money will be in hand within a few days to begin building several houses.

The need of houses is a crying necessity in Pascagoula. Such houses pay a handsome dividend on the investment and it is urged that every citizen who can afford to do so will become a stockholder in the building association. Besides a patriotic contribution to the upbuilding of the city the investment promises handsome dividends.

BAYOU CASOTTE FREE SHIPBUILDING SITE.

Pascagoula, Miss., July 19, 1918.

To the Chronicle:

Bravo! I have just read the most sensible reply of Hon. Milton H. Smith, president of the L. & N. Ry., to the challenge of Hon. W. B. Thompson, president of the New Orleans Dock Board, anent the ship canal project, and it pleases me beyond words to feel that he is strong enough to stand pat on his position against the digging of an unnecessary arm or indentation of the mighty Mississippi river.

"Build ships" is a patriotic slogan for the people to lean on. This is not the hour to entertain artificial waterways, nor is it the opportune moment for improvement of nature's streams and inlets. Expenditure of time and money should be directed toward actual shipbuilding under present admirable conditions, not wasted on speculation and exploitation.

Pascagoula and Mobile are building ships on the banks and shores of bays and rivers already provided by a wise Creator and the consequence is that these ports are flourishing communities.

Patriotism consists in serving our glorious republic unselfishly and without regard to present and future emoluments.

Bayou Casotte on Pascagoula bay offers the best indentation on the northern shore of the Gulf of Mexico, free of charge, for ship construction.

MARTIN TURNBULL.

The Right Reverend John B. Gunn, Bishop of Natchez, addressing a large congregation at Our Lady of Victories Catholic church, Sunday, denounced the cowardly propaganda being spread by German sympathizers that France was bleeding white. It is for such infamous lies, said the Bishop, that the followers of Prussian autocracy are noted. The fact is that France is stronger today than when she drove the Hun across the Marne.

—W.S.S.—

The L. & N. Ry. is adding an 80-foot extension to the west end of its freight house here. Some months ago the building was enlarged by the addition of 45 feet on the east end. The company's business here has increased over 500 per cent in the last year.

—W.S.S.—
